Matthew 20:28 The Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many."

Dear Friends in Christ, in these days when so many regular features of our church life have been affected, let me encourage you to consider a new way of giving financial offerings, if you haven't already thought about it. Due to the blessings of modern technology, it is quite easy to contribute offerings by means of automated electronic giving through your bank. It's a great way to may sure your giving is regular and can be received even if you can't be here in person to drop your offering in the plate! Thank you for all you do for your Lord at St. Paul! --
Pastor Constien

We recognize the work and dedication of our St Paul Lutheran Church Women's Missionary League this weekend. All ladies of our congregation are members of this organization automatically. We meet four times per year in the lower level. We enjoy dinner together followed by a guest speaker and a short business meeting. We collect mites for local, national and international projects. These projects help thousands of people yearly.

Please consider joining us for our next meeting and prayer service.

Set the Date!

We will be celebrating our "Advent By Candlelight" service a little bit differently this year. We will assemble in our church sanctuary on Sunday, November 29th at 4 p.m. Pastor Constien will conduct the worship service. Everyone is welcome to attend and social distancing will be observed. Our guest organist will be Mr. Steve Hente, his wife Candy Hente will be our guest vocalist. This will be a wonderful opportunity to invite your family, neighbors and friends to St. Paul. Mr. Hente was a guest organist for our organ concert when we celebrated its refurbishing and dedication. As you leave, you will get a sweet surprise to take home that is individually wrapped for safety. All children will get an Arch book to take home. Let's prepare our hearts for the Christmas season with Fellowship, Peace and Joy! St. Paul Lutheran Women's Missionary League Sponsors

Please fill out the attendance cards provided in the pews and drop in the designated box. One per family
